The truth when all are

Random Thoughts

1/ America is a birth farm

{ " is no longer America ie all liberal political measures are approved without a vote of the people

- these are the measures that lack logic, morality, or financial responsibility

- it is this that boils the blood of the best citizens

- which causes them to dig in their heels

If you have not stood against birth, you are now a soft target

no carrot under my nose

II Truth and Death are never separated

- those who understand truth understand death
- Those who founded this country would agree
- Fox News is as guilty as all other networks, but has a different assignment: to weaken the strong

1st sign of "the end" years of J.C. Penney vacant at our newest mall designs.

It is not what people say now that matters but what is true for history

IV Those whom allow their god, to be melted, have no God.

- they fear death for good reason

IV The Ten Commandments do have exceptions, very rarely.

Some people are born queer, very few.

Some blacks stand openly and vote against all evil, very few 40% of whites are now as depraved as the majority of blacks

The infraction, small % will not die on the front line for truth are sufficient the bring the end what civilized this lie has omitted "transaction"

Lies of the century

- women are on average equal to men (mentally or physically)
- men are ^{not} most often the best "head of household"
- Blacks are on average mentally equal to whites
- more than .01% of the population is born gay
- "America" stands ^{down} where the people make the big (ballot) choices
- God is not good
- Fox News is conservative ~~(none)~~ (not one commentator)

America is not close to economic collapse

- the day the stock market dropped over 900 then rebounded by 700 in ten minutes (700 represented largest transaction since oldest profession began)

IX The Future

- World Financial Collapse
 - Those countries ~~not~~ not in the liberal cess pool will then be on top
- North Korea
Iran
Russia
~~etc~~
China

- The US & Europe will implode.
The countries listed will glean what remains.
- Billions will starve
- In what was formerly the US & Europe common sense or logic will reemerge

The liberal media (including FOX) presents the picture that there completely censored those who

The billions of dollars put in

If someone is walking on a roof, and If someone is walking on a roof, and does not they are GLAD they think "How wonderful I did not get hurt."

I've been seeing straw for 40 years +

Had Dylan Roof reached political

But thank you for the wake up

If the founders of this nation could be raised from the dead they would spit in the face of their descendants for allowing evil to gain hold in the US, without objection

If the founders of this nation ~~were~~ could have seen what the US would become, they would say
"let us destroy it now".

Anyone who cannot see that the US

Liberals hate logic, or truth.

The path prepared by liberals could not be followed by anyone.
There are not enough metal detectors, nor people to tend them, to stop what has ~~been~~ been initiated.

When the "stone age" is again again, logic will return.

ie:

The great majority of households will have a man at the head

ii. men will not contemplate homosexuality.

iii. men will hate less than truth

iv. men will prey to their Maker

I am greatly ashamed of almost every memory of my life. In except what I see as my "Direction" This is what unites people, belief that they will get over the little things, not the knowing decisions.

How absurd and perverted to cause innocents to pay for political objectives. I'd like the atom bomb.

It is not a war

It is a war with fundamentalism.

IF you cannot win you must allow those with morality to segregate themselves, even knowing they will again control the world in the future.

It would be impossible to have enough metal detectors, have a large enough military force ~~to~~ to fight the might of right

America must go boldly into Reverse

America is in the midst of celebrating filth, and all such. They are the enemy. Those who have not stood are equally culpable.

Soft targets are everywhere. Military, police etc. designations are not necessary.

I have watched very little television in the last 40-25 years, and almost no movies produced after.

America is in The business of

- 1 - making whores and prostitutes of girls and women
- 2 - making niggers of Black people
- 3 - breaking up families that could have survived in a society of decency
- 4 - making sexual deviants (homosexuals) of normal people
- 5 - censoring people who love what is moral
- 6 - creating division amongst people that could have lived in harmony based on logic (affirmative action)

America as a whole is now the enemy. All soft targets included.

Nowhere in the US is it safe.

The Future

There are other ways to communicate besides the phone and the computer.

The US cannot afford 100 of me, and to know that many, this means there are at least 1,000 per state.

We are not stupid enough to let on to the brainwasher

It will soon be every

 - 3 - abortion - show "live" documentaries, and it will be stopped
 - 4 - pornography - to cause it not to be well segregated is wrong

And yes Donald, all in Washington are very stupid

Targets

- I'm sure The fine servicemen killed were overall very nice people, totally ^{was} aware of the big picture
- Non military/police if anyone is just as good

Police/FBI/etc

There will soon be a pan division in your ranks. Those who of you that are gravely disappointed in the direction of political matters (abortion, affirmative action, homo rights etc) will eventually see that your discontent will eventually grow (along with the economic pressure to come and chaos associated with it) to where mine was long ago.

The original intent of The ~~Supreme Ct~~ was of ~~rehab~~ or a moral creation of The Supreme Court was of a moral origin.
They could not have foreseen the foolishness that would transpire at this late date.

The surprise that Trump <sup>(or anyone else)</sup> could take control of this foolish nation is no surprise to me. Stupid. By RAIN.

My father asked me (when I was about 12 years old) when leaving his office if the pencil I had in my hand ~~was~~ ^{came} from inside his office (as we walked out the door, I said "yes". He said, "This is a government office and don't ever take anything out of this office again. We need people in offices like him today.
He was a man of fairnes.

About four or five months ago I called ~~the~~ five or six radio stations (talk) and said "if you would like to interview someone that has been 'radicalized' I would love to tell you how it happens". No takers. "Radicalized" had just become colloquial.

I do not look forward to my own end, but do not trust myself in captivity. It is possible, but not likely, that I could say something that I do not believe.

The single thing that has antagonized me most is the effective censorship. All of this could have been said without the catastrophe about to occur.

I had 2 automobiles stolen in Philly City. Two months later I see a guy driving one of my cars.
I follow him to his apartment and call the police.

The police knocked on his door and he came out. He claimed that he got the car from someone that he had a receipt.
He had none.

I then heard him (though he was talking with lowered volume) say that ~~he~~ he worked for ~~the~~ "The City".

Long story short, the police were trying to tell me minutes later that he was not going to be arrested.

~~So~~ I raised so much hell

They called in more cars (now 4 cars present) on me.

The report (which I got a copy of) was a fair representation of the events, though it may not still be available.

Yes it will be said and said "how senseless" but if ~~this~~ my act drains the value of the dollar (because it is not based on anything) by creating new expenses (guards, bullet proof glass, etc at ~~the~~ movie theaters) it is for good overall. The US is the enemy of good, of God.

It is not Blacks that have caused this, it is "The establishment". Both Republicans and Democrats are liberal. They are more concerned with grabbing power

Man doing what is just.
"Just" and "truth" have no conflict."

In a world that is based on truth, the job of ditch

Just as the election of immediate change in international

In the law (US) words spoken just prior to death hold greater weight. You are now reading them!

In the days to come, all media

Surely you can recognize that there are not enough metal detectors, bullet proof glass, etc. to stop truth, or at least that it must be openly debated.

"overreaching" is the start of slavery.
